

The Devil's Lake was created by the Green Bay Lobe of the Laurentide Ice Sheet which cut into an ancient river valley that hosted the Baraboo River. The thick ice sheet blocked the Baraboo River from two directions and impounded the river.

Map by Shan Ye